Who Killed Mar-
cum at Jackson

But Father-In-Law Is Not Ready to Tell

WOMEN ARE NOT SAFE IN THE TOWN SAYS HURST.

BECKHAM WILL SEND MILITIA

To County Seat in Order to Protect Witnesses of Grand Jury—End
Near at Hand.

Middlesboro, Ky., May 9—(Bulletin)
An ex-Breathitt county official who was run out of Jackson and who is here, names a deputy sheriff, who, he claims, killed James E. Marcum. He says he was near by when Marcum fell and knows what he is talking about.
At the proper time he intends returning to Jackson and appearing against the deputy. The man who is authority for this, refuses at this time to have his name published. He has numerous relatives in Breathitt county and he says their lives are endangered. There are several refugees in this, Bell county, who are in a state of anxiety as to where to go. One man who was chased five miles by the feudists escaped by walking through the mountains. Jackson dispatches, according to refugees, are being censored.

Paris, Ky., May 9—D. D. Hurst,
father-in-law of the late James E.
Marcum, who is in the city gives out
the following statement:

"I notice numerous newspaper accounts that I am reported as saying that I have left Breathitt county for good and am a fugitive from that county. I wish to correct that impression for I shall immediately return to Breathitt. I know there is danger at my home, but I must face the music. My widowed daughter is in Jackson and I would be a cruel sort of a father to desert her now. She surely needs my protection in so lawless a land, for I do not believe that either sex or age will be respected. All women need protection in Breathitt county.

"Again my duties as postmaster in Jackson require that I should return.
I cannot desert a post of duty, come what may. I don't know what they have in store for me, but I am going back just the same.

"I want to say, however, that nothing on earth could tempt me to live in Breathitt county after my affairs in that place have been settled. As soon as I am in a position to leave, I shall do so with the greatest of pleasure.
A county of assassins is not to my liking. I intend soon to take up my residence in Lexington.

"No I can't tell you just now," continued Hurst, "who killed Marcum.
Such a disclosure at this time would endanger my life. The utterance of the name of a certain man who is a well known person in connection with the crime might precipitate further disasters. At present I intend to give out no names, but when the time comes I shall certainly bring to light the assassin. I know who shot down my son-in-law, if nobody else does.

"No feud exists, and the murder did not follow as a result of a feud. It is simply the association of a lot of lawless spirits on the one hand and patient inactivity on the other. But the end is near at hand."

Gov. Beckham will send militia to the county seat in order to protect witnesses of the grand jury.

Tom Cockrill has held a conference with his sympathizers and refugees from Breathitt who are now in Lexington.

It is stated that on January 1 1903,
there were 1,124 bituminous coal mines
in operation in Pennsylvania, as compared with 948 on December 31, 1900.

MURDER

Of Miss Reichlin Has Wrought Marvelous Change in Her Brother, Cas-imer Reichlin.

Chicago, May 9—A Lorain, Ohio, special to the Chicago American today,
says:
A marvelous change, according to the stories of those who know him best, has come over Casimer Reichlin since the murder of his sister, one week ago.

His hair before the tragedy was as black as a raven's wing. It is turning white. His whole disposition has changed, according to his friends. Before the murder he was jovial and at ease in his conversation. He is now moose, wandering the streets as if in a dazed condition, seeking by intuition the murderer, and seldom speaking to any one unless spoken to.

The burden of this horrible tragedy has weighed heavily upon his mind and his friends fear that he will collapse entirely. He admits himself at times that he cannot bear the strain much longer. At other times he feigns strength and courage.

Lorain, May 9—Matters in the Reich-lin murder case are practically at a standstill. Chief of Police Braman, went to Avon yesterday with a picture of Kennedy, the suspect, arrested at Sandusky, but no one was able to identify the picture as the man seen at that place.

Mayor King said this morning: "If the reward offered by the commissioners and the rewards to be offered by societies is not the means of putting any of the detectives to work, I will see that the services of at least several are secured."

All Eyes Turned Toward
Washington

THERE IS NO LITTLE UNEASINESS
IN ENGLAND

LEST CZAR SHOULD SUCCEED

In Convincing the United States Officials that Russian Occupation is a Good Thing.

Washington, May 9—(Bulletin)—It is stated today that the United States will go no further than making a formal protest to Russia's Occupation of Manchuria.

London, May 9—The United States now holds the center of the stage in the far east. A drama which was begun by the Russian re-entry into New Chwang, news of which was carried in these dispatches to the Advocate yesterday. All eyes in Europe are now turned toward Washington, for it is admitted that whichever side
the United States favors will be the victor. There is considerable uneasiness in England lest the czar should succeed in convincing the United States officials, that the Russian occupation of Manchuria will result in the development of the vast commercial field, which will be thrown open to American conquest. British statesmen are working with might and main to persuade the Washington authorities that the United States' interest lies in joint action with the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

GERMANY INDIFFERENT.

Berlin, May 9—Your correspondent regards the Russian occupation of Creed Revision.

Philadelphia, May 9—Rev. Wm. H.
Roberts, stated clerk of the Presbyterian General Assembly, has received returns from 263 of the 277 Presbyteries
on the question of creed revision.
Eleven overtures were sent to the Presbyteries by the last General Assembly. Of the returns received 15 are in favor of all the overtures. 13 are partly affirmed, 2 negatives and 3 took no action. This vote ratifies the proposition which required a majority of two thirds of the Presbyteries, and practically assures the adoption of the revised confession of faith by the General Assembly, which meets in Los Angeles this month.

Indianapolis, May 9—President David M. Parry of the National Manufacturers' Association, whose recent hostile denunciation of labor unions caused a sensation, has changed his attitude. Last night Mr. Parry contributed $20 to a fund to help entertain the National Association of Switchmen, which meets here May 18, and took occasion to explain that his attitude toward organized labor is much milder than it formerly was. "I believe," he said, "that if union labor would turn its attention to good things it would accomplish a great work. But I can't uphold the tactics of some labor leaders."

CHIEF

Machen of the Free
Delivery

Suspended By Postmaster
General Payne

ACTION WAS RECOMMENDED BY
ASSISTANT BRISTOW

MR. FOSNES SUCCEEDS MACHEN

The Latter Says He Courts Full Investigation—Something Further
May Develop.

Washington, May 9—The investigation of the affairs of the postoffice department, which has been dragging along for two months, took a sensational turn late Friday afternoon,
when by order of Postmaster General Payne, August Machen, general superintendent of the free delivery system,
and one of the most widely known government officials in the United States was relieved from his duties and Postoffice Inspector M. C. Fosnes was designated to take charge of that office. The change takes effect today, when Mr. Fosnes assumes charge of the free delivery service. The action was taken on the written recommendation of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, who is directing the investigation of the affairs of the department. In ordering the change recommended, the postmaster general gave Mr. Machen "leave of absence until the investigation is concluded." Mr. Machen promptly acquiesced and said in doing so he courted
the fullest investigation.

Mr. Machen has been under fire ever since the investigation began. Charges of various kinds have been preferred against the administration of the free delivery branch of the postal service.
Mr. Machen came here from Toledo, O., in 1893, and qualified as superintendent of the free delivery service.
Since then the office has grown to immense proportions and the rural free delivery service has been introduced and extended to cover all parts of the country.

Ever since the investigation of the practice of alleged irregularities on the part of Postoffice Department officials began, Superintendent Machen has been under a more or less severe fire. Vague charges of favoritism have been made by different persons, but up to this time nothing of a serious character has been proved against him.

Mr. Bristow will now be untrammelled in his investigation. Men of his own choice will be in charge of the free delivery division. If any pressure or influence have been used on clerks to hold back information it will be in large part if not entirely removed. Since the resignation of Mr.
Bravers as superintendent of the salaries and allowance division, the investigation has centered in the free delivery division, and therefore the belief that every facility should be given the inspecting officers and that Mr. Machen would himself profit in the long run, if he be innocent of irregularities
by giving way temporarily.

NEW MAYOR

Of Zanesville Will Allow no Loitering on Street and Forbids Expecting on Walks.

Zanesville, Ohio, May 9.—Acting on the advice of Mayor Deacon, the police officers of the city are just now enforcing the first two of several novel reforms that are to be instituted and enforced.

During the day the officers have passed up and down the business streets of the city, engaged in keeping loiterers on the move or from in front of doorways and store windows. The standing room privilege is limited to the curb stones. It is a novel reform but it is meeting with the approval of the public.

Another reform that is to be introduced and enforced is in regard to expectorating on the sidewalk. This nuisance must be abated, says the mayor and again he has the public behind him. It won't take the offenders long to "catch on."

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Zanesville, O., May 9.—John Harris, colored, who was arrested for alleged perjury, waived examination in a justice's court and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300. Harris is alleged to have perjured himself while testifying in the Abel-Alexander Brothers suit. The charge was preferred against him by Mr. Abel and the defendants in the libel suit have provided bond and means for his defense.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gullidge of Verbena, Ala. was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at Frank D. Hall's drug store.

Cut Off Their Hair.

A procession of the unemployed that took place in London in 1764 did not meet with any great success or public sympathy. In that year wigs went out of fashion, and the wig makers of London were thrown out of work and reduced to distress. They petitioned George III. to compel gentlemen to wear wigs by law. As the wig makers went in procession to St. James' to present their petition it was noticed that most of those persons who wanted to compel other people to wear wigs wore no wigs themselves. This striking the London mob as very inconsistent, they seized the processionists and forcibly cut off all their hair.—London Express.

MY ONE DETECTIVE CASE

(Original)
"I had been ill and lost my position. When I recovered, I started out to find another. My wife gave me a kiss and cheered me as well as she could."

I resolved to go from door to door in the business part of the town, without reference to the kind of business. I had visited some twenty stores and manufacturing places when I struck the headquarters of the police department. True to my resolution, I went in. The inspector was in a bad humor about something, and I considered it a mere waste of time to apply to him, but I would not go back on my resolution.

"What do you want?" he asked gruffly.
"Anything. Detective work, if you leave any."

"Detectives! Blunders! I want a good detective right now, and I can't get one. How much experience have you?"

"None."

He sat for a moment thinking, then said: "My detectives are all known to the cronies. I have a mind to try you on a case because you're not known. The —th National bank was robbed last night, and the robbers are trying to get out of town with the swag. If I arrest them, they won't have the money on them, so I'm letting them run. Suppose I put you on to one of them, do you think you could make yourself out stupid enough for him to send the stuff out of town by you?"

"I can do a very hard job of trying," I replied.

He considered awhile, then instructed me to go to a certain cheap hotel and put up as a guest from the country. Bill O'Neil, one who was suspected of the robbery, was there, or had been there. I was to gain his confidence in the hope that he would send me out with at least a part of what had been taken from the bank. I fixed myself up in country costume and went to the place designated. A man answering the description of Bill O'Neil was sitting in the office when I went up to register. I paid no attention to him nor he to me. I went into the dining room, ate a good meal and on going out saw O'Neil sitting where I had left him. I bought a five cent cigar and while I was smoking it walked up to O'Neil and asked him if he knew when the next train left for Spottswood, a village twenty miles out. He answered very gruffly that he didn't, but I sat down beside him and began to talk about the price of corn, hay and other country commodities. Presently he called out to the clerk, asking him about the Spottswood train, and received a reply that it would leave in an hour. He then asked what road it was on and on being informed said to me that he was going to a station on the latter side of Spottswood and we would go together. "That is," he added, "if I can see a man before train time." He couldn't see "a man" before train time and asked me if I would take a parcel to Cottonwood. He would telegraph his partner to be on the look-out when the train stopped to receive it.

It looked as if the man had fallen into the trap, but I suspected he hadn't. At any rate I knew there was a game to be played and my eyes must be like a myriad of telescopes.

"All right," I said. "Gimme yer bundle."

"Come up to my room. I've a bottle there, and I'll blow you off."

It was plain he wouldn't act where others could see. We went to the room and he gave me the bundle. While he was getting out his bottle with his back toward me I jabbed a sharp knife into the package. The blade met with no resistance and I caught sand and sawdust in my hand. I had just time to put up the knife and thrust the bundle into my pocket when O'Neil turned, and I received my liquor with a snarl.

I asked for a second drink and a third and so on as long as O'Neil would give me one. I waxed merry as I drank, and I soon saw by the expression of O'Neil's face that he was quite willing I should get drunk. At last instead of taking my train I fell over on the bed in an apparent stupor. Had I not possessed a strong head I would have been all I appeared. It was now quite dark, and I was snoring lustily. O'Neil turned off the light, and I heard a key turn and a drawer open. Then he went out, locking the door on the outside. I jumped up, glanced out the window, hung outside on the sill and let myself drop twenty feet or more to an extension and then down another big drop to the street, taking position on a corner where I could see every egress. I waited half an hour and was about to give up the job when I saw a "hayseed" like myself go out through a side door. Something—I don't know what—induced me to shadow him. I tracked him to a railway station, where I directed a depot official to call a policeman while I watched my man. In a few minutes the "hayseed" was arrested. On him was found the plunder done up in a bundle similar to the one that had been given to me.

O'Neil was also arrested. He told me that as mine was a new face he was uncertain whether I was a detective or not. Finally he concluded that whatever I was he would send me off with a dummy bundle. Then seeing a chance to lock me in he transferred the money to one of his gang made up to play my part.

My work so pleased the inspector that he wanted me to remain with him, but as I received a $5,000 reward I invested it in business and am now making money.

THE MEN AND WOMEN

Who Enjoy the Choicest Products of the World's Commerce.

Knowledge of What is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that qualities of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain permanently to universal acceptance. However loudly craved, they may not hope for world-wide preeminence unless they meet with the general approval of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting, enjoying and learning the real worth of the choicest products. Their commendation, consequently, becomes important to others, since to meet the requirements of the well informed of all countries the method of manufacture must be of the most perfect order and the combination the most excellent of its kind. The above is true not of food products only, but is especially applicable to medicinal agents and after nearly a quarter of a century of growth and general use the excellent remedy, Syrup of Figs, is everywhere accepted, throughout the world, as the best of family laxatives. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants known to act most beneficially on the system and presented in the form of a pleasant and refreshing liquid, but also to the method of manufacture of the California Fig Syrup Co., which ensures that uniformity and purity essential in a remedy intended for family use. Ask any physician who is well informed and he will answer at once that it is an excellent laxative. If at all eminent in his profession and has made a special study of laxatives and their effects upon the system he will tell you that it is the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome, and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after-effects. Every well-informed druggist of reputable standing knows that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative and is glad to sell it, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, because it gives general satisfaction, but one should remember that in order to get the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs it is necessary to buy the genuine, which is sold in original packages only; the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs and also the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

SUFFERED 15 YEARS
I have been a sufferer for the last 15 years with Dyspepsia and have tried every remedy available and also many doctors, but found no relief until I purchased a 25 cent package of ACKER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS, which helped me immediately, and two boxes entirely cured. Hoping I may benefit some other sufferer, I ask you to publish this. Thomas I. Smallwood, 145 South Mechanic street, Springfield, O. Send to W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., for a free trial package. (Nothing like them.) For sale by Collins & Son.

An Old Recipe.
Here is a recipe for the bite of a mad dog taken from the "Universal Magazine of Knowledge," published by John Hinton at the King's Arms in Newgate street, London, May, 1753: "Take the youngest shoots of the elder tree, peel off the outside rind, then, scraping off the green rind, take two handfuls of it, which simmer a quarter of an hour in five pints of ale. Strain it off and when cold put it in bottles. Take half a pint, make warm the first thing in the morning and the last at night and be sure to keep yourself warm; also bathe the part affected with some of the liquor warmed, the dose to be repeated the next new or full moon after the first. It is good for cattle as well as the human species."

Whims of a Horse.
The better the horse the more spirit he has. The disposition of an Arab hunter is thus described by Sewell Ford in "Horses Nip": No paragon, however, was Pasha. He had a temper, and his whims were as many as those of a schoolgirl. He was particular as to who put on his bridle. He had notions concerning the manner in which a currycomb should be used. A red ribbon or a bandanna handkerchief put him in a rage, while green, the holy color of the Mohammedan, soothed his nerves. A lively pair of heels he had, and he knew how to use his teeth.

Pennsylvania has a larger number of persons of negro descent in its population than any other of the Northern States.

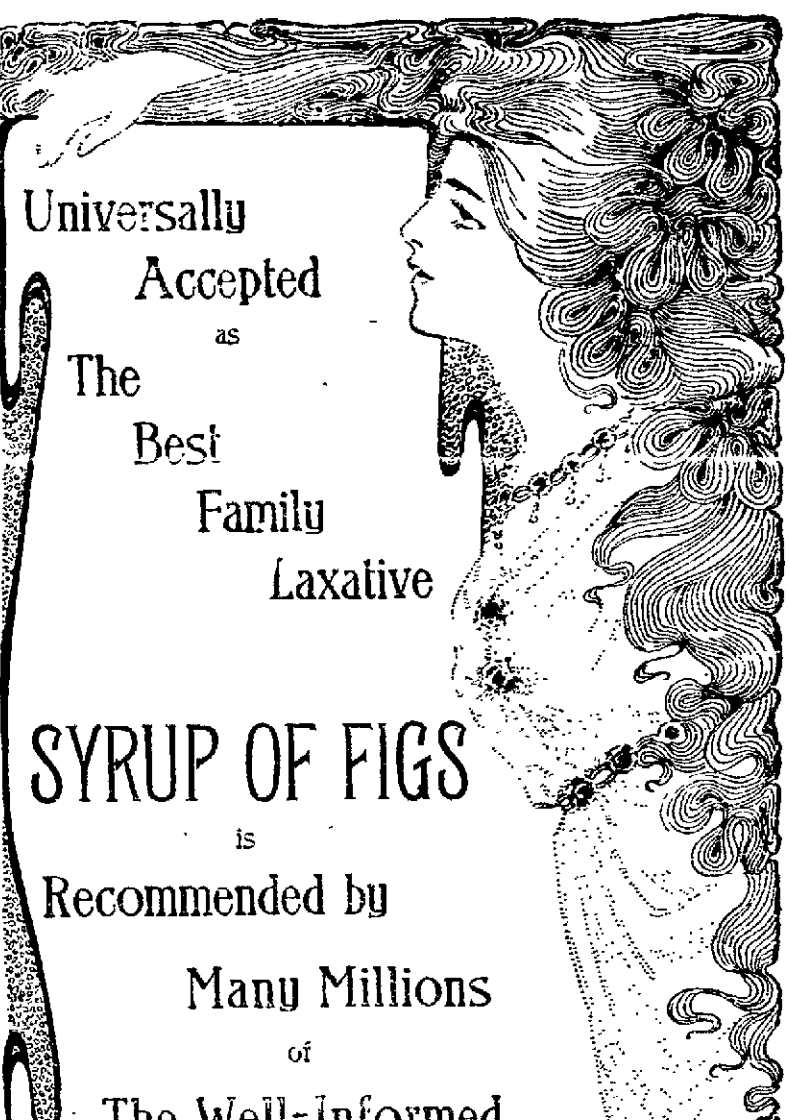

SOUND AS A DOLLAR
That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

Will send you a bottle to try, if you like. J. C. F. LOWSE, 499 Pearl street, New York.

MISS SARAH FINLEY,
Vice-President of the Palmetto Club, Memphis, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI is a thoroughly scientific and modern remedy, meeting the needs of the modern woman in the modern way—without the torture of an operation. Wine of Cardui has cured them in the privacy of their homes and it has found a place in the hearts of American women that no other medicine has found. In their gratitude over 10,000 American women have written letters commending Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui meets their wants as no other medicine does. It sustains the young girl at the shock of her entrance to womanhood. Women who take Wine of Cardui have little discomfort during pregnancy and little pain at childbirth. When the change of life appears they enter a happy, healthy old age. Every month it comes to the rescue to assist Nature in throwing the impurities from the body.

Miss Sarah Finley, of Memphis, Tenn., vice-president of the Palmetto Club of that city, speaks for herself and many friends when she bestows the following praise on Wine of Cardui:

"Among the numerous medicines placed before suffering women for their relief none can touch McElee's Wine of Cardui. It towers above them all as a reliable female remedy. It simply drives pain and disease away and restores health in an incredibly short period. I have taken great interest in this medicine for the past two years, since it brought health and strength to me. I have also recommended it to a number of my friends and they who have used it speak of it in the highest terms and I feel that it is praise well bestowed."

If you are suffering from female weakness Wine of Cardui is the medicine you need.

You can have health the same as Miss Finley if you will take the Wine of Cardui treatment. If you need advice further than the complete directions given on the bottle, address The Ladies' Advisory Department, Chattanooga Med. Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

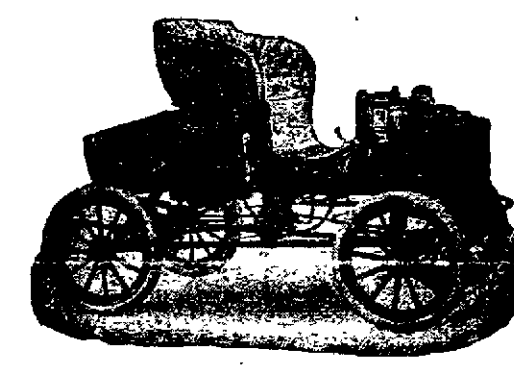

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

FATHER RITTER

Pastor of Jersey St. Joseph's Church Taken to Columbus on Recurrence of Insanity.

Sheriff Anderson arrived in the city shortly after 6 o'clock Friday evening, with Rev. Father Ritter, pastor of St. Joseph's church at Jersey. Father Ritter was arrested on a lunacy affidavit sworn out by Mr. John Kuster, editor of the Catholic Columbian, at the instance of Bishop Moehler of Columbus. About two years ago Father Ritter sustained a sun stroke, which affected his mind, and he was under treatment at the State Hospital for about three months, when he so far recovered that he was discharged and was stationed at St. Joseph's church. It being thought that the change would prove beneficial to him. It seems, however, that as soon as warm weather comes on, the malady returns, which consists of vivid imagination. As a pastor, however, he has been incapable in his work, and has accomplished much good. Lately, his actions gave rise to the belief that his malady had again returned, and he was brought here and he was adjudged insane by Probate Judge Irvine. He was taken over to Columbus the same night, where he will be treated at one of the sanitariums.

THE RAILWAYS

VERY PROSPEROUS YEAR FOR THE B. OF R. T.

Ministers Oppose Sunday Excursions: Rock Islands' Frisco Deal.—Locri Railway News.

The report of the secretary and treasurer of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1902, just made public, shows that the year was prosperous. The increase in membership amounted to 9,000 men, making a total of 60,000 in round numbers. During the year 32 new lodges were organized, making a total of 670 lodges throughout the United States and Canada. The amount of death and disability claims paid out during the year amounted to $882,107. The sixth biennial meeting convenes at Denver on May 18.

Sunday Excursions.

Ministers of Cleveland have petitioned the railroads to stop running excursions on Sunday. It is said that some of the high officials of the Pennsylvania and Lake Shore companies are in favor of such a move. The question will be considered, it is understood, by the passenger men next Wednesday at the meeting of the Central Passenger Association at Chicago.

The Frisco Deal.

New York, May 9.—There is the very best authority for stating that the terms of the Rock Island's Frisco deal are substantially as follows:

For every share of common stock of Frisco the Rock Island Company will pay $60 in collateral trust 5 per cent bonds to be secured on Frisco common stock as bought, and $60 in Rock Island common stock.

It is understood that these terms will be offered to all holders of Frisco stock, not merely to the so-called St. Louis pool.

More Power Needed.

The increase in the business of the mines operated along the Central Ohio division of the B. & O. railroad, has demanded a large increase in the power of the railroad in order to move the product of the mines. With this end in view the B. & O. people have been turning a number of their large class 1-7 engines to the Newark divisions. These engines are the finest pieces of mechanism that have ever been seen in this section of the country. They have been out of the shops only a few months and are now at their best in every respect. They weigh 193,000 pounds. Their cylinders are 22x28 inches, with a water capacity of 7000 gallons and a coal capacity of 34,000 pounds. These engines are expected to haul something better than the class E 17-18 engines, and to make better time. They are a great delight to the men on the New divisions, who have been "row-hiding" on the "hom" or "pounders" for the last year, on account of the easy riding qualities. Some of the boys say they ride like a Pullman car. Even the tank doesn't jolt enough to jar the coal down for the boys who handle the shovel.

Railway Appraisement.

On May 19, the county auditors along the line of the C. A. & C. railroad will meet in Akron to assess the road for taxation purposes. The counties are Wayne, Summit, Stark, Holmes, Knox, Delaware, Licking, (Auditor A. R. Pitzer), Franklin, Coshocton and Muskingum.

B. & O. Surgeons.

An invitation has been extended to the B. & O. Surgeons of this city to attend the next annual meeting of the B. & O. Association of Railway Surgeons, to be held in Cleveland, June 16, 17 and 18. The surgeons will be accompanied by their wives, and a trip will be made by boat to Niagara.

SUCCUMBED TO THE COX MACHINE.

Another Republican with large ambitions which unfortunately ran counter to the wishes of the Republican bosses, has seen a great light and pulled himself out of the way of the Cox machine in order to avoid being run over. Smith W. Bennett, special counsel in the office of Attorney-General Sheets, announces his withdrawal from the contest for the Republican nomination for attorney general. It was a contest until George B. Cox declared for Wade H. Ellis of Cincinnati, the expert code manipulator. Up to this time Mr. Bennett had visions and dreamed that he saw his name going before the convention amidst uncontrollable bursts of applause. Now it is his boom instead of the applause that has burst. It was not an accident, either. It was a deliberate case of candidicide. Cox, upon full agreement with Hanna and in exchange for his support of Herrick for governor, dug up Wade Ellis as his candidate for attorney-general, whereupon Brother Bennett took to the woods. Brother Bennett is a wise man and particularly expert in giving opinions. His most emphatic opinion now is that he is "not in it" in view of the fact that Cox has declared for Ellis. The incident is valuable and timely as showing the utter subservience of alleged Republican leaders to the dictates of the Hanna-Cox machine.

When President Roosevelt was praising the army in the Philippines he neglected to tell his audience that the reason he and Secretary Root have antagonized General Miles at every turn, have deprived him of power, and would have retired him had they not feared public sentiment, was that the general was determined to expose and punish every act of cruelty by officers and soldiers, while the secretary, backed up by the president, has made every effort to suppress the news of military outrages and to gloss them over when they became public.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP OF PUBLIC UTILITIES.

(Indianapolis Sentinel.)

It is worthy of note that Carter Harrison and Tom L. Johnson, who were successful in their campaigns for the majority of great cities are outspoken advocates of municipal ownership of public utilities, and made their fights on that issue. Cleveland now owns its water plant, and Mayor Johnson was fighting for a three cent fare with a purchase clause in any franchise granted to a street railway. Mr. Harrison was fighting directly for municipal ownership of the street railways of Chicago, and was fought by the corporations and their organs. He has been charged by them with corrupting Chicago, but he boldly answers that "the only way to strike at the very fountain head of corruption in local politics is to administer a few crushing defeats to these giant corporations, and in municipal ownership of all public utilities lies the ultimate solution of purity in civic affairs." There is a growing feeling that the large municipal corporations are apt to occupy the same position toward municipalities that the trusts do toward the nation, and the support received by Messrs. Harrison and Johnson shows that the people are not slow to accept that view.

NO LACK OF TIMBER

For the Democratic Gubernatorial Nomination--Probability of an Old-Fashioned Democratic Contest at the State Convention, for Ohio is Looked Upon as Fighting Ground This Year.

Columbus, O., May 9.—Rumblings beneath the surface of the Democratic fighting ground in Ohio indicate that there will be no lack of Democratic aspirants for the nomination for governor in the state convention to be held next August. The tendency during the past few weeks has been in the direction of an old-fashioned Democratic contest this year, and although it is too early to figure on results or even to make formal announcements, there can be no doubt that the situation is daily increasing in interest. There has been a very considerable demand from many parts of the state for Hon. John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, to announce himself, but thus far the Clark county candidate has not committed himself. It is probable that Mr. Zimmerman anticipates that he will not be alone in the field and is desirous of being entirely familiar with the ground before taking a step that cannot easily be recalled. There is no doubt, however, that he has been solicited to become a candidate by many leaders of the party and that he has a considerable following among the rank and file in many counties.

There are a good many Democrats who would not be averse to seeing Colonel James Kilbourne of Columbus again lead the party. The sentiment in his favor is largely due to the fact that the assassination of President McKinley in the midst of the Kilbourne campaign of 1901 was an event which no one could have foreseen and which rendered the election of any Democratic candidate in Ohio immediately following it absolutely impossible. Some persons therefore argue that Colonel Kilbourne is entitled to another chance. The colonel is not communicative on the subject, but it is certain that he is not doing anything to obtain the nomination. It is quite a reasonable probability, however, that the Franklin county delegates will give him their votes on the first ballot as a compliment, if for no more serious object. This done, the delegation would feel at liberty to go elsewhere as a unit or to divide its strength among other candidates.

Hon. John H. Clarke of Cleveland, is another candidate much talked about just now. He has many friends throughout the state and it is urged in his behalf that his candidacy might unite the party as few other nominations would do. Mr. Clarke's ability to make a brilliant campaign is also universally conceded and his friends are urging it as one of the main reasons suggesting his nomination. In some quarters, however, it is hinted that he would much prefer the nomination for governor. In the event of his obtaining it it is said he would make fully as active a campaign as the candidate for governor, and with a strong man in the latter capacity this would stimulate Democratic interest in Ohio to a degree it has not attained in recent years.

Another possibility not to be overlooked is Hon. Charles N. Haskell of Ottawa. It is reported on excellent authority that Mr. Haskell has been dallying with the gubernatorial bee and some good authorities insist that he can readily obtain the endorsement of Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, if he asks for it. Hon. John C. Welby of Canton, is also a quantity not to be underestimated. It is more than probable that his name will go before the convention, and just now very noticeable that wherever it is mentioned among Democrats in connection with the nomination for governor it is received with marked favor.

Tuscarawas county would like to present the name of Judge A. W. Patrick of New Philadelphia, and unless there is some radical change in the situation between the present time and the date of the convention various other local favorites may be expected to be brought forward. The indications just now are very much in favor of a contest for the gubernatorial nomination that will enliven the average Democratic heart this year with unusual enthusiasm.

GARBED BILLS

But in the Fight Dropped Them—Robbed Bookmaker at Race Track. Man Caught.

New York, May 9.—With a handful of $100 bills, a sneak thief who slipped his hand into the cash bag of a bookmaker at the Morris Park race track, was chased across the crowded betting ring by his victim.

In the chase the thief cast aside the money, which was picked up by spectators, and later claimed for its owner by another bookmaker who witnessed the occurrence.

A man said to be the thief was taken in custody by detectives and locked up with a complaint of grand larceny against him. The prisoner denied the theft. Of the money stolen, $600, all in $100 bills, was recovered, but $20 was lost.

Scalded to Death.

Hamilton, O., May 9.—Eugene Lewis, one of southern Ohio's best known labor leaders, was scalded to death at the Tylus-Gardner paper mill in Middletown, where he was the chief engineer. Lewis was inspecting his engine, when a large steam valve burst, flooding him with scalding water.

In a recent comparative test between Scotch and American Ayrshires the Scotch average one pound more of milk per day, but the American excelled in butter yield, the average being 2.16 pounds per day.

COL. MURRELL'S WIFE

COMPLETELY RESTORED TO HEALTH BY TWO BOTTLES OF

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Women who dearly love husband, children and home life are those who desire to be vigorous, active and full of health. When the wife and mother is suffering, and unable to minister to the wants and comforts of those dear to her, the house is sad and despondent; there is family discomfort and aching hearts, long for the safety of the home guardian angel.

Thank Heaven, thousands of our women are now fully prepared for any of the ills prevalent in springtime. They have made Paine's Celery Compound their family medicine, and through it, they are enabled to ward off serious illness and physical breakdown. The happy experience of Mrs. Wm. Murrell, a prominent lady of North Asbury Park, N. J., should cheer all women who now suffer from nervousness, sleeplessness, troubles arising from stagnant and impure blood, liver and kidney complaints, rheumatism and neuralgia. Mrs. Murrell says:—

"I do not know how to express my heartfelt thanks to you for the benefit I have received from the use of Paine's Celery Compound. I had a continual pain in my back, a worn tired feeling, and was despondent, with no energy to move about the house or to attend to my domestic affairs. My nerves were all unstrung; the slightest noise would startle me and put me in a tremble. After using different medicines and consulting different physicians, and getting no relief, I took the advice of a friend and tried Paine's Celery Compound. After using half a bottle I felt so relieved that I determined to continue its use. Two bottles completely cured me. I have not had the slightest pain since, and I have never felt better in my life. I can truthfully say that Paine's Celery Compound gives immediate relief and makes a lasting cure."

A SAMPSON MEMORIAL.

Trophy of Santiago's Naval Battle to Mark Admiral's Birthplace.

The navy department at Washington has issued orders that the birthplace of the late Rear Admiral Sampson at Palmyra, N. Y., be marked with one of the two 5 inch guns of the Spanish war ship Oquendo, says the New York Times. The guns and other trophies taken at the battle of Santiago have been on exhibition at Norfolk for the past three years. The Oquendo's gun will shortly be shipped to Palmyra and placed there in Sampson's honor. The Oquendo was one of the ships that escaped from the light at the mouth of Santiago harbor and got a few miles up the coast before being sunk. She was one of the four ships with which the Brooklyn was engaged, according to Captain Clark, at the time that the Oregon, making her famous dash, distanced the other ships and came up just behind and inside the Brooklyn. The Oquendo was engaged by the Brooklyn, Oregon and Texas, which hung on the rear of the chase, and she went ashore after the Indiana had dropped out of the fight.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change, and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

Alphabetical Significance.

A writer in the Garden has discovered that many of the worst foes of the horticulturist begin with "w," and he instances worms, weevils, wind and other workers of wickedness. This, writes a correspondent, suggests a question as to whether there is any natural grouping of good or evil things under particular letters. Take "b," for example, and consider how many boons and blessings to man begin with it. The baker and butcher bring him bread and beef. For additional foods he has bacon, beans, broil, bloaters, broccoli, broth, bivalves, bananas, berries, biscuits, buns and butter. After a banquet of bounties bouches he may bring out his beer and blow his baccy while he bestrodes his bicycle. These are but a few of the beneficent things included under that blessed letter "b." Now, as a contrast, take "d," and among the first words we think of are damp, dark, dreary, dismal, dirty, depressed, despairing and so on, the very sound of which is enough to drive one into doleful dumps.

DROPPED DEAD

Just After Drinking Glass of Milk With Apparent Relish--Willis D. Montgomery Passed Away Suddenly at 54 Front St. Friday Evening

Willis D. Montgomery, son of E. M. Montgomery, the well known owner of the Excelsior Flour mills, died about five o'clock Friday evening, at the home of Jonathan Jones, 54 Front street, where he has been rooming for some months past.

The deceased had not been well for a long time, but was up town Thursday and on Friday did not appear any worse than usual. He was around the house all day and just before he died went to the kitchen and asked Mrs. Jones for a glass of milk. This was given him and he drank it with apparent relish, and started to his room. In a narrow passage between the kitchen and dining room, he fell and in a short time was dead, before Dr. A. T. Speer, who was summoned immediately arrived. His death was due to stomach trouble and heart disease.

The deceased was aged 45 years and had lived in Newark practically all his life. He was never married, but leaves a father and mother and one sister, Miss Cora Montgomery, whose home is in the East.

The remains will be taken to Silver Creek, N. Y., on B. & O. 47 this evening for interment.

UNIQUE

Song Service in the First Methodist Church Parlor Friday Evening by Epworth League.

A unique song service was given in the First Methodist church parlor by the Epworth League Friday night, being a musical story of "Pilgrim's Progress." An account of Christian's journey, with many adventures before getting to the New Jerusalem was read by Miss Anna Connell, the theme being at different times carried on by appropriate sacred songs as solo's, duets, quartettes and choruses, by the choir of the church. The songs that were rendered, carrying on the thread of the narrative as read by Miss Connell were "Come Said Jesus Sacred Voice," "Oh Turn Ye," "Rescue the Perishing," "Throw Out the Life Line," "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Fear Not, I am With Thee," "Abide With Me," "Sun of My Soul," "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" "Strike, Strike for Victory," "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah," "He Leadeth Me," "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," "Jesus Lover," "Angels of Jesus," "Holy, Holy, Holy."

"There is a gate that stands ajar," was sung as a duet by Miss Mossbrook and Mr. Root. Mr. Merle Marshall sang "Knocking, Knocking, Who is There" as a solo, while Messrs. Marshall, Root, Misses Mossbrook and Gorby sang a quartette, "I'm a Pilgrim."

Miss Pearl Bourner presided at the piano.

Rev. L. C. Sparks gave a short address on the "Life and Influence of Bunyan," and Miss Ertell Baugher read a short biography of the wonderful allegorist.

Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMeter of Shepardsville, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. Juries in the Old Days.

In olden times when a jury in England remained impervious to the judge's gentle mode of persuasion and imprisonment were resorted to. The jury that acquitted Sir Nicholas Throckmorton was condemned to eight months' imprisonment in addition to the payment of a large sum of money. In the reign of Queen Elizabeth a jury, having reduced a prisoner's alleged crime of murder to that of manslaughter, was at once sent to prison and bound over in a large sum to be of good behavior. Penalties were likewise inflicted upon the innocent wife and children of the offending jurymen. Even now it is believed by some legal authorities that a judge has the right to inflict a fine upon a jurymen refusing to obey his directions. Such power is, however, not exercised except in the case of a juror absconding himself without a justifiable cause. Of this practice there is the following story: A judge had fined a jurymen for non-attendance. On hearing that he had been unable to be present because of his wife's funeral the judge, whose wife was said to be not of a particularly gentle nature, exclaimed: "Has he? That was a good excuse indeed. I wish we all had the same!"

Right Trusses.

There Should be no Guesswork About Trusses

They have an important mission. They must do what they should or they are worse than non-existent. Many are suffering comfort and safety by wearing ill-fitting trusses. Others who might be cured by a rightly fitting truss are kept non-cured. These we pity and, we believe, the right ones. Can be fitted perfectly and worn steadily, even pressure. Wear we find can't easily be broken or lost.

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker gave on Friday evening at their home on Hudson avenue, one of the most delightful entertainments given in Newark for some time. The occasion of the very informal and impromptu party, was the two day's visit of Mrs. Edwin Ginn and Miss Rosa Grebe of Boston. Although it has been twenty years since Prof. Grebe removed with his family from Newark, they are still held in sweet remembrance. As far as was possible the former friends, with a few others, were asked to Mrs. Tucker's on Friday evening, and a most happy company it was. Mrs. Ginn (Miss Fannie Grebe) and Miss Rosa Grebe seemed to their friends as though time had dropped out, and the past was joined directly to the present.

It has never been possible to think of the Grebe family apart from music, and once more, the friends were delighted with the beautiful playing of Mrs. Ginn on the violin, accompanied by Miss Grebe on the piano. Others taking part in the evening's entertainment were Mrs. A. H. Pierson, Mrs. Fred Seymour, Miss Lisle and Mr. Otto Meyer. A duet by Mr. Meyer on the violin with Mrs. Ginn at the piano was one of the most attractive numbers of the evening's entertainment.

It was with regret that such a pleasant evening must close. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and nothing was omitted which could be desired either mentally or physically.

A delightful surprise party was given on Thursday evening by a few friends on Miss Edna Norman. Among those present were Misses Lina Harris, Maude Williams, Grace Guy, Gusie Walker, Mamie Rossin, Gertrude Rossin and Miss Smith; Messrs. Anderson, Smith, Swan and Sutton.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. H. Everett gave a very pretty luncheon at her home on Buena Vista street. Covers were laid for fourteen guests who were seated at a large round table. Those present were Mrs. A. C. Dickerson, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mrs. Harry J. Hoover, Mrs. Fred M. Black, Mrs. G. W. Van Fossen, Mrs. Frank G. Warden, Mrs. Robert M. Davidson, Mrs. Frank C. Bartholomew, Miss Hensley Miss Robbins, Miss Webb, Mrs. Baldwin of Mt. Vernon and Miss Latimer of Hamilton.

A very jolly surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marple of Elmwood avenue Wednesday evening by about thirty of their friends who came with well filled baskets from the contents of which supper was served. The evenings entertainment consisted of various games.

A very delightful surprise was given Mrs. A. Trautman on Monday at her home on Boylston street by a number of her friends to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of her birth. Mr. Rhinehart was greatly surprised, but the happy faces and pleasant voices soon convinced him that it was not time to cry or faint, and he was soon as merry as the merriest. After the excitement of meeting had quieted down all were invited to partake of a sumptuous supper. The evening was delightfully spent in vocal and instrumental music, conversation, etc. Among those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Rhinehart, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rhinehart, Ross Davidson, Earl Varner, Blanche Van Winkle, Elsie Wright, Mabel Rhinehart, Bertha Clark, Hattie Berry, J. The Dog in Egypt.

In Egypt the dog was a friend and faithful servant. He lived in the house with his master, followed him in his walks, attended the public ceremonies, sometimes free, at other times held in leash by a slave or child or in princely families by a favorite dwarf. At his meals he had his place marked under the benches of the guests. As in Greece and Rome, he was there to dispose of bones, the fragments of meat and the pieces of bread that were thrown down and in a general way to keep the dining room clean. These were certainly not very refined fashions, and if our house dogs had to satisfy themselves in this way they would be likely to die of hunger.

The ancients did not feel the delicate tastes and disgusts in such matters that we experience. Their life presented excessive refinements and rude features of which we have no idea side by side. The house dog in Egypt was a domestic, working at his trade, only his trade was one in which we have ceased to employ him.

No life can be considered wasteful that has known earnestness of purpose in a worthy cause.

LYDIA PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

School Girls

Young girls at this period of life, or their mothers, are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; all such letters are strictly confidential; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; and her advice is freely and cheerfully given.

School days are danger days for American girls. Often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality. Sometimes it is never recovered. Perhaps they are not over-careful about keeping their feet dry; through carelessness in this respect the monthly sickness is usually rendered very severe. Then begin ailments which should be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, a tendency to avoid the society of others, are symptoms all indicating that woman's arch-enemy is at hand.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped many a young girl over this critical period. With it they have gone through their trials with courage and safety. With its proper use the young girl is safe from the peculiar dangers of school years and prepared for hearty womanhood.

A Young Chicago Girl "Studied Too Hard."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. — LILLIE E. SINGLAI, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill."

"Miss Pratt Unable to Attend School."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months. I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness. — MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life.

Took a Prominent Part in the State Convention—News of the Newark Lodges.

Cedar Camp held one of its best meetings Wednesday regardless of the fact that most of the officers were absent. Ninety-three men were present. The following candidates were initiated: G. W. McCullough, John Siegel, H. B. Bricks, James Conner, Frank Caine, John E. Brown, Frank Grigsby and J. A. Richardson, and they were all well pleased with the work.

Cedar Camp is preparing for a large meeting next Wednesday when the work will be put on and refreshments served.

O. B. Young, Rees R. Jones, W. S. Brandt and T. W. Tabler the delegates to the state convention which was held at Toledo last Wednesday, have returned and Rees Jones was one of the delegates elected to attend the national convention to be held in Indianapolis in June.

The fact that he came from the largest camp in the state went far toward his election. Our forester team will go to Indianapolis to enter the competitive drill and the boys are hard at work with the hope that they get a slice of the prizes.

Druids.

The United Order of Druids held a meeting on Monday night, at which three candidates were given the first degree. The third degree was also conferred on seven candidates. On Monday evening three candidates will be given the first degree and four the second. After the work on last Monday evening a banquet was served. There was a large attendance of the members and considerable business of importance was transacted, among which was the election of officers. The Druids have taken in quite a number of new members during the past two months, and the old order is taking on its youth again. At the meeting to be held on Monday evening it is hoped that every member will be in attendance.

Foresters.

Court Licking, No. 1318, Independent Order of Foresters, will meet in Red Men's Hall on Monday evening, May 11, and will take into full membership one of the largest classes of candidates ever taken into the order at one time in the city. Every member of Court Licking is urged to be present to see the work, as put on by the new team. By order of the Captain every member of the team is hereby notified to meet at the hall on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, standard time. Let every member of the team turn out to the last drill before Monday night.

Royal Templars.

The next meeting of the Royal Templars will be on Friday evening, May 15, 1903. All members and citizens of Newark are requested to be present. Speakers from Buffalo, Cleveland and Columbus will interest you. A. O. U. W. Hall, South Side of the Square. J. W. Doomey, Deputy and Financial Secretary.

The Newark Elks.

The members of Newark lodge of Elks are making active preparations to send a large delegation to the National Grand Lodge that meets in Baltimore, July 21. The plan is to have as many of the members as possible go in a body and engage sleepers for the entire trip, which can be occupied by the visitors during their stay in Baltimore.

Knights of Pythias.

Roland Lodge, K. of P., No. 305, will meet this evening at 6:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of Willis Montgomery, whose remains will be sent over the B. & O. at 7:30 to New York. By order of Wm. Beutlich, C. C. Chas. L.H. Long, K. R. S.

Royal Neighbors.

The Royal Neighbors will hold their regular meeting on Thursday evening May 14, at their last meeting in April seven applications were presented, balloted on and elected. All members are requested to be present at the next meeting as the final arrangements will be made for the class, which will be initiated the last of the month.

MASONIC

Meeting Friday Night Was Attended by a Large Number—Inspection Work and Banquet.

An unusually large and delightful special meeting was held on Friday evening by Newark lodge No. 27, F. & A. M. The purpose of the meeting was two-fold, to do work in the Master Mason's degree and to receive the annual inspection of the District Lecturer. Over one hundred and fifty masons were present, including members from Newark and Ascmc lodges and various lodges throughout the county about all of which were represented at the meeting. Worshipful Master A. A. Stasel conducted the ceremonies very correctly and impressively, assisted by the other lodge officers and the excellent team. The Master Mason's degree was conferred on Mr. Walter Henderson of this city, after which the annual inspection and report was made of the condition of the lodge by District Lecturer O. Poppleton, of Mt. Vernon.

His report was very gratifying to the members and visitors present, as it showed Newark lodge to be in a very flourishing condition. In connection with his report Lecturer Poppleton made some interesting and timely remarks for the good of the order. At the conclusion of the inspection an elegant banquet was served. Past Master A. F. Crayton acted as Grand Marshal in forming the procession to the banquet, over which Worshipful Master A. A. Stasel presided gracefully. A delicious menu was served, prepared by Caterer Kuster, which was heartily enjoyed by all present. Owing to the lateness of the hour and the fact that a good many visitors had to leave on different trains, it was found necessary to dispense with the speech making. The entire evening was a very delightful and profitable success, thoroughly enjoyed by all present, and reflected great credit upon the lodge and all concerned who had it in charge.

The annual banquet and social of St. Luke's Commandery, No. 34, Knights Templar of this city, will be held on Tuesday evening. The Committee of Arrangements, consisting of Brothers A. L. Rawlings, J. L. Worth, F. L. Beggs and W. G. Taafel is a guarantee that the affair will be a complete success. The annual banquets of St. Luke's Commandery are a feature of the Commandery that has been in vogue for many years, but it is expected that the social of next Tuesday night will eclipse all former efforts. Following is the

On Ascension Day St. Luke's Commandery, No. 34, K. T. of this city, will attend Ascension Day services at Mt. Vernon, the guests of Clinton Commandery, of that city. The services will be held at the Episcopal church, and the sermon will be preached by Bishop Leonard of Cleveland, of the Northern Diocese of Ohio.

At the stated assembly of Bigelow Council, No. 7 R. & S. M., held on Wednesday night, the R. & S. M. degree was conferred on five candidates and the work was inspected by Wm. R. Evans, Grand Recorder, of Chillicothe. The work was followed by a supper.

Monday night at a stated convocation of Warren Chapter, No. 6, R. A. M., eight petitions were received for membership and special meetings were appointed for every Monday night this month.

At a special communication of Acme lodge, No. 551, F. & A. M., held on Thursday evening, the Master's degree was conferred on two candidates. The work was followed by a banquet.

TRY THIS TEST.

And see if your Kidneys are Diseased.

A very simple way to determine whether your kidneys or bladder are diseased is to put some of your urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a cloudy,ropy or stringy appearance, if it is pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that you are in a dangerous condition. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Kidney Remedy cures such serious symptoms as pain in back, inability to hold urine, a burning scalding pain in passing it, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, and the staining of linen by your urine.

The Rev. Aaron Coons, D.D., pastor of the M. E. Church of Rhinecliff, N. Y., says: "I most sincerely believe that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Kidney Remedy is the best kidney, liver and blood medicine made, and I heartily recommend it, for I know by experience it will do all that is claimed for it."

"Favorite Kidney Remedy" is a vegetable help to the stomach and bowels in performing their duties properly. It overcomes and permanently cures dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness and rheumatism. It is absolutely harmless and purely vegetable. It contains no narcotics or minerals in any form, no dangerous stimulants, no mercury or poisons, and is the only kidney medicine that does not constipate.

eth away wrath," who has a loving word and a pleasant smile for each member, who makes it a duty to seek out the new member, who is a stranger, perhaps and sits down and talks a little while with her and introduces her to surrounding sisters; who respects the right of each member and in turn demands respect, who is sympathetic in joy and grief, and responds in loving womanliness when an occasion presents for an expression of either of these sentiments; whose hands are ever ready to minister to the afflicted or distressed; whose pocket-book also responds to the wants of the needy; who finds her way into the sick-room and with cheery words and a handful of flowers or some dainty dish to tempt the appetite, encourage the patient to forget pain and sickness; who is not embittered by her own troubles, but they ever so great, and tries to conceal the faults of the brothers or sisters of her lodge and rebukes gently when unkind remarks are made; who holds the Lodge as a home circle and is interested in its growth and welfare.

At an Odd Fellows' fair held at Watertown, N. Y., recently it had been advertised that the young ladies would sell lasses at their booths for a certain price, and a large crowd had gathered to watch the fun. But it happened that not a single young man offered to buy a kiss, and the evening closed without the expected sport. The explanation was made the next day that the girls had arranged to sell the ordinary candy-kisses, but a small boy, brother to some of the girls, had learned the secret and had given it away to the young men.

The Odd Fellows are the strongest fraternal organization in the United States. The last report shows a membership of 967,105, a net gain over last year of 55,955. In the encampment there are 143,618 members, in the P. M. 16,540 members, and in the D. O. R. 373,653 members. Last year they spent for relief $2,785,688. From 1830 to 1902 they have spent for relief $92,665,214.47.

The power of Odd Fellowship is not in its beautiful temple, its elegant furniture, its rich regalia or the perfection of its ritualistic and secret work, but rather in the warm sympathy, the strong friendship, the ready charity and the true love that is kept in stock and ready to be used to comfort the sorrowing, to help the helpless, to care for the needy and to give the sweetest solace that can come to the human heart—love—Odd Fellows' Herald.

AMUSEMENTS.

Society will be out next Tuesday evening to welcome the foremost artists of the legitimate stage, Louis James and Frederick Warde in Wagenhals and Kemper's magnificent spectacular production of "The Tempest."

Mr. James will be seen in the semi-human character of Caliban which typifies the more gross and discontented qualities of man's nature, and Mr. Warde as Prospero which suggests the most sublime heights that mortals may attain, even to a command over the supernatural. No greater contrast of equally important roles occurs in any of Shakespeare's works, and as it is the general desire to see these popular players in something different to what they have appeared in before, the selection of this exquisite comedy for this occasion will be endorsed with enthusiasm.

The scenic effects which partly consist of the most beautiful transparencies is the work of H. Logan Reid, many years scenic artist for the late Augustin Daly, the costumes, almost as important a feature of the production, were designed by Mrs. Siedle of the Metropolitan Opera House, and the musical accompaniment which includes much original work was composed and arranged by Maxime de Grosse. The very elaborate electrical effects which so effectually carry out the desired illusions of the magician, and which represent a large pecuniary outlay, have baffled even the most expert electricians. The spirits of the air and nymphs of the forest, the demons and semi-human monsters, are impersonated by a chorus of beautifully trained voices and a ballet. Among the more important people of the supporting company are Mr. Norman Hackett, who will be seen as Ferdinand, Miss Edith Fassett as Ariel, Thomas Coffin Cooke as Stephano, Wadsworth Harris as Alonso and Miss Teresa Maxwell as Miranda.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. McHoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in fourteen months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50 cents at Hall's Drug Store.
